DR. ADEOLU ADEBOYE, MD, FACS

Our speaker today is Dr. Adeolu Adeboye, a trauma surgeon, surgical intensivist, author, educator, and humanitarian whose work brings together medicine, leadership, faith, and service.

Originally from Nigeria, Dr. Adeboye trained in the United States and now practices at HCA Florida Bayonet Point Hospital, where he also serves as Associate Program Director of the General Surgery Residency Program. He is board-certified in General Surgery and Surgical Critical Care and is a Fellow of the American College of Surgeons.

He is the author of Surgical Mastery and Surgical Critical Care, and of the forthcoming book Grace Revealed.

Together with his wife, Abiodun, he founded Shekinah Global Healthcare Foundation, which helps provide free medical and surgical care to underserved communities in Nigeria. Through collaborative medical missions, these efforts have reached more than 12,000 patients and beneficiaries.

His work has been featured on FOX 13 News and in podcasts including Doctors Making A Difference. Drawing on his experience in trauma surgery, education, and humanitarian service, he speaks on purpose, preparation, resilience, and the responsibility to use our opportunities to make a difference in the lives of others.

Today, he'll speak on [Talk Title].

Please join me in welcoming Dr. Adeolu Adeboye.
